

Elm Creek XC Series Race Report: Week 4, December 26, 2018

Crowds were a little lighter for the post-Christmas day events. Conditions for the races were just over freezing with light snow beginning to fall as the classic race started. McEwan Rodefeld swept both events for the men winning by seconds over Nick Ross, and Dennis Curran in the Men's Skate and almost 2 minutes in the Men's Classic over Jay Wenner. Marit Sonnesyn beat out Nicole Gilman and Michaela Keller-Miller for the Women's Skate field. The women took over the Classic with 8 of 10 competitors. This time, Michaela Keller-Miller traded the bottom step of the podium for the top step. Just behind her was Annika Martel followed by Julie Garretson.

Sorry for the delay in results. There was a minor glitch between the chair and keyboard that required some manual rework of the results.
